

Truth and Reconciliation Resources

Truth and Reconciliation Government Resources

- Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada: Calls to Action: click here
- Government of Canada – National Day for Truth and Reconciliation: click here
- Government of Canada – Begin Your Learning Journey: click here
- Government of Ontario – Ministry of Indigenous Affairs: click here

Niagara Region Services

- Fort Erie Native Friendship Centre: click here
- Niagara Regional Native Centre: click here
- Niagara Region Métis Council: click here
- Niagara Region Indigenous Engagement: click here
- Niagara Chapter Native Women: click here

Educator Resources

- Orange Shirt Day: Every Child Matters: click here
- The Gord Downie & Chanie Wenjack Fund: click here
- First Nations Pedagogies Network: click here
- Resources for Learning about Truth and Reconciliation with Your Kids: click here
- Truth and Reconciliation in YOUR Classroom- How to get started, and who can help: click here
- The National Centre for Collaboration in Indigenous Education (NCCIE): click here

Webinars and Videos

- CMAS – Supporting the Settlement of Young Immigrant and Refugee Children: click here Webinar: Walking Together in Reconciliation with Elder Brenda Mason & Lori Huston: click here
- CMAS – Supporting the Settlement of Young Immigrant and Refugee Children: click here Webinar: Awakening and Coming to Know Indigenous Pedagogies in Early Learning: click here
- Indigenous Perspectives Docuseries: click here
- “The Stranger” Official Video - Gord Downie: click here
- Gord Downie's The Secret Path: click here

Books Available to Borrow from the ECCDC Resource Lending Library

- Natural Curiosity 2nd Edition A Resource for Educators: The Importance of Indigenous Perspectives in Children’s Environmental Inquiry
- kimotinâniwîw itwêwîna/Stolen Words
- Speaking Our Truth: A Journey of Reconciliation
- Truth and Reconciliation in Canadian Schools
- Seven Sacred Teachings: Niizhwaaswi Gagiikwewin
- Turtle Island: The Story of North America's First People

Interested in borrowing one of these books for your early learning program? Click here to reach our Resource Team.

Do You Live At Distance? Please click here to visit our EStore