

Creating Outdoor Learning Programs

Educators across Ontario have been embracing the move from traditional playgrounds to naturalized outdoor play spaces that amaze and inspire children, educators, families and communities. If you are looking to bring further intentionality to your space by creating a unique outdoor learning program that truly connects children to nature, this three part series, based on Eric Nelson's book Cultivating Outdoor Classrooms is for you. Join the ECCDC's Early Learning and Child Care Program Consultant, Ginette Wilson, for these engaging sessions where you will have opportunities to participate in conversations and share ideas with fellow educators, and engage in a variety of hands-on experiences. Whether you have a newly renovated outdoor space or you are working in a traditional outdoor space, a variety of strategies and tips will be offered in this workshop to support you on your journey.

Part 1: Philosophy and Approach

The first session will look at what Outdoor Classrooms are, their benefits, and the role of the outdoor classroom in early childhood education. Participants will explore philosophies and approaches to support Outdoor Learning Programs.

Wednesday May 2, 2018 • 6:30 to 9:00 pm • Centennial College Event Centre, 937 Progress Avenue, Toronto (Spring/Summer Room) • $65 includes materials and nutrition break

Part 2: Curriculum and Content

The second session will look at the role of the educator in developing the curriculum and content of Outdoor Classrooms to ensure that a full range of rich learning experiences are available for all children.

Wednesday May 30, 2018 • 6:30 to 9:00 pm • Centennial College Event Centre, 937 Progress Avenue, Toronto (Spring/Summer Room) • $65 includes materials and nutrition break
