

I love watching you watch me

from the heart

You are the most important person to your baby. Your baby loves to feel your presence when you are close and playing together. You provide a sense of warmth and comfort as your baby learns about the world. You will love watching your baby as much as your baby loves watching you.

Your baby knows you're here and every single thing you do makes a difference.

